"Fearless" is the narrative of a most uncommon and astonishing life-- where even as a teenager Julie Blacklow displayed qualities that marked her as a natural for reporting. Courage, tenacity, and a willingness to get in anyone's face if it served her mission to help people were in her DNA. Her intolerance of injustice made her especially popular--or unpopular--depending on which side of the fence you sat. Among the first women in television news in America, at KING-TV in Seattle, after more than 40 years she changed careers and returned to what she loved most as a child-- horses, becoming manager of a horse ranch. She has survived a dramatic television career, cancer, and dozens of extreme highs and lows and tells us about all of it in her unforgettable memoir.--Publisher.

This is an incredible true story of two 18 year olds at war. The words are direct from my diary which I wrote in almost daily whilst at war, telling an emotionally charged and brutally honest view of an 18 year old in conflict, expressing fear, excitement and terror. It leads into my decline from a local hero to embarrassment as I quickly sank into the dark space of PTSD, anxiety and depression and how it affected me and my family. I was born in December 1963 and HMS Fearless was launched in December 1963. She became the ship in which I first went to war in 1982 as a young Royal Navy Communicator. Our lives were linked inexplicably up to and including 1982. Having both been 'born' in the same month and year, I was in Aden during the Aden Insurgency as a child in 1967 where my father was serving in the Royal Artillery. There Fearless carried out her first operational role evacuating troops off the coast of Aden. Becoming my first ship in the Royal Navy in 1981, we sailed to war together in 1982. From that intense experience she brought me safely (physically not mentally) back home. I am now a Hypnotherapist, Life Coach and Public Speaker putting my negative experiences into a positive outcome to support myself and others to transform their lives.

Like the instant classic The Last American Man, Fearless is the story of a remarkable individual who accepts no personal limits—including fear. Freya Hoffmeister, a forty-six-year-old former sky diver, gymnast, marksman, and Miss Germany contestant, left her twelve-year-old son behind to paddle alone and unsupported around Australia—a year-long adventure that virtually every expert guaranteed would get her killed. She planned not only to survive the 9,420-mile trip through huge, shark-infested seas, but to do it faster than the only other paddler who did it. As journalist and expert kayaker Joe Glickman details the voyage of this Teutonic force of nature, he captures interminable days on the water and nights camped out on deserted islands; hair-raising encounters with crocs and great white sharks; and the daring 300-mile open-ocean crossing that shaved three weeks off her trip. For 332 days Glickman followed Freya's journey on her blog—along with a far-flung audience of awestruck, even lovesick, groupies—as she took on one terrifying ordeal after the next. In the end, he says, “her vanity and pigheadedness paled next to her nearly superhuman ability to master fear and persevere.”
